

VIDEOCONFERENCED INTERNATIONAL HEALTH COURSE

Spring Quarter 2008

EPP 298 – CRN 46081 for public health and other graduate students

EPP 498 – CRN 46177 for medical students only

(Register for 2 units)

*Join us for a weekly in international health. This will be taught simultaneously
Davis and Sacramento. Dr. in Davis and Dr. Pecoraro in* *discussion of current issues

two-unit course credit
via video conferencing in Koga will lead the instruction
Sacramento.*

Wednesdays, 5 to 7 p.m. @

Davis campus: Olson 250

UCDMC: Room 2205, Medical Education Building, Sacramento

Instructors:

Patrick Marius Koga, MD, MPH, & Maria Lucia Pecoraro, MD, MPH
UCD-SOM, Department of Public Health Sciences

Topics include:

Cross-Cultural Perspectives in Global Health

Populations: Demographic Transition and GBD

World Bank, Economics, and Major Players in International Health

Death and Dying in a Global World

Disaster Mental Health in Afghanistan and Iraq and PTSD in OEF/OIF US veterans

Slum Health: Emerging and Re-Emerging Infectious Diseases in Brazil & India

Torture and Human Rights

International Women's Health: Female Genital Mutilation in Africa

Natural Disasters and Complex Emergencies: New Orleans, Pakistan, Indonesia

Visit <http://www-phs.ucdavis.edu/> or contact:

Dr. Koga, pmkoga@ucdavis.edu or Dr. Pecoraro, mcpecoraro@ucdavis.edu